

Men and Teen Choir members Melanie Leguizano, Talia Neuman, Suzie and Olivia Dallape perform on Greenwich Avenue during the recent

Men and Teen Choir serenades

A vocal group of 12 to 15 members gathered on Greenwich Avenue to listen as the Teen Choir performed a selection of traditional Jewish songs as well as a special, Hawaiian rendition of "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" featuring two young ukulele players.

Patricio Misitrano, tournament director, and event supporters Joe (not pictured) and Mary Pat Cabrera, presented CCI with a $5,500 gift to support its programs. "We are so excited to receive this honor. It is just wonderful that associations such as APTA reach out and recognize organizations such as ours. Every donation allows us to continue to provide and strengthen our services to the community," said Pamela Griffin, CCI's acting executive director.

APTA donation benefits Community Centers

The American Platform Tennis Association hosted its Mixed Nationals and Husbands and Wife Nationals tournaments in March.

The APTA event was held at Greenwich Country Club, with more than 48 teams on the husbands and wife event and at capacity with 64 teams in the mixed event.

Part of APTA's commitment is to give back to the community. Community Centers Inc. of Greenwich, a social services agency serving the Greenwich community for almost 60 years, was the recipient of APTA's generosity.

The Live Nativity is returning to First Congregational Church just in time for Christmas.

The "Live Nativity" children's pageant and with songs from the Chancel Choir. All are invited to gather around the crèche on the front lawn of the church to sing some of carols of the season during the community carol sing at 4 p.m. The music will continue with the Festival Carol Service at 6 p.m., featuring a brass ensemble. The "Once in Royal David's City" Nativity pageant will be held at this time as well, with songs from the Chancel Choir. There will be a candlelight service with communion at 9 p.m. During the service, the Meetinghouse is illuminated by candlelight while guests share in the magic of the season. The youth/alumni choir will sing. The church is located at 108 Sound Beach Avenue. For more information, call the church at 203-637-1791 or visit Fccog.org.

30. be rch / to ght, and nas are first nas some new s year as Carols for ill be held service is ilies with e church's ouse. The ll provide ice will be d includes al David's